

Deadline for Tax Exemption for Veterans May 31

County Assessor John R. Quinn today warned veterans that the deadline for filing the $1,000 property tax exemption this year is Tuesday, May 31, at 5 p.m.

Already, 270,000 veterans owning property in Los Angeles County have applied for the exemption, Quinn said.

He also mentioned that the May 31 deadline applies to churches seeking tax exemption.

Wives may claim exemptions for their husbands this year as the result of new legislation enacted in January.

Main office of the county assessor is located in the Hall of Justice Building. Branches are located at Pomona, Van Nuys, Santa Monica, Long Beach, Hollywood, and Lancaster.

Area Voters Cast Ballots Next Tuesday

Registered voters of Harbor City and the rest of Los Angeles trek to the polls next Tuesday to select a mayor, fill a board of education post, and consider five city charter amendments.

Lomita voters have but one decision to make, the choice between Earle D. Baker and John T. Gardner for board of education office No. 2.

In the majority run-off battle incumbent Fletcher Bowron vies with Lloyd Aldrich, former city engineer, whom Bowron defeated roundly in the preliminaries when there were nine candidates in the race.

A release from the "Citizens Committee to Reelect Mayor Bowron" this week made reference to Harbor City and its first protection thursty:

"This section of the Harbor Area, annexed to the city of Los Angeles more than 30 years ago, apparently was promised fire protection, but has never been adequately protected. For a number of years, a so-called volunteer fire company was maintained, but was to a great extent useless. And during the war this was discontinued entirely because no volunteer personnel was available.

"Plans are underway for an attractive and adequate station at 253rd street and Frampton avenue in the center of the Harbor City area, fulfilling a promise made these residents many, many years ago."

Aldrich has promised better government with lowest taxes. The five charter amendments consider the questions of attendance fees for members of the Board of Commissioners of the Water and Power Department; tenure of civil service personnel; acquisition of harbor lands; the City Clerk as an ex-officio tax collector; time of the mayor's message on the condition and affairs of the city.

KILLED . . . Gayle Warrick, candidate for Congress from the 17th district in 1947 dies in train-auto crash.

Former Candidate For Congress Killed in Crash

Funeral services were held Monday at McMillan Funeral Chapel Gardena, for Gayle Warrick, 40, Gardena contractor and candidate in 1948 for the House of Representatives from his district.

Warrick who lived at 427 West 165th street was killed last Thursday evening when his car was struck by a train.

The accident occurred on the Santa Fe crossing on Imperial boulevard near Bloomfield avenue in the Norwalk district.

Impact of the crash was so terrific that a flatcar attached to the train was derailed. A southbound San Diego streamliner was delayed an hour until the tracks were cleared.

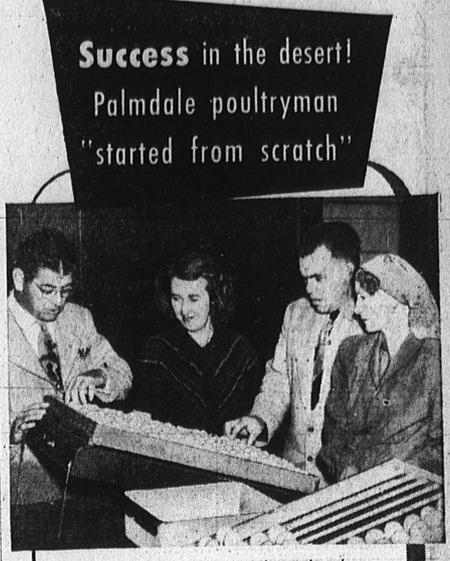

Interment was at Roosevelt Memorial Park.

Visitors to Tour Local Industry

Ronald E. Kaehler, president of the San Francisco Stock Exchange, some 35 to 50 members of that organization, several financial writers for bay area newspapers, and the heads of the trust departments of various San Francisco banks are flying here June 9 to tour the American Radiator and Standard Sanitary Corp. plant on Crenshaw boulevard.

That evening the visitors will hold a joint dinner with members of the Los Angeles Stock Exchange. George Greiger, plant manager, will conduct the group on their tour through the American Standard plant.

They will tour also several other industrial plants including the Byron Jackson Company, Goodyear Rubber Co., the Measco Co., Gladdin McBean, Lockheed, and General Motors Corp.

Mr. and Mrs. Craig Wilson Jr. and an employee show their hatchery room to their banker friend.

Wilson's Desert Hatchery and Produce Company started with a brooder house and 2,000 baby chicks in 1931. Last year they processed more than a million and a half pounds of poultry. Owner Craig Wilson says "... Bank of America has been a great help to us... nearly every one of our major improvements has required a loan... Bank of America has had a part in nearly every one..."

Lawndale area trusteeship by polling almost twice as many votes as the combined strength of his two opponents. Wilson received 2095 votes and was followed by T. E. Fronteria with 615, and Harrison G. Stermer with 605.

The election results do not become official until the board of trustees meets to actually canvass the ballot in accordance with state law. Russel and Wilson were elected to serve three year terms on the board.

Although the post held by Charles V. Jones, Torrance area representative, did not figure in the election, voters from all precincts of the junior college district balloted for one candidate from each of the two nearby community areas.

Scientists' Church Text Hypnotism

The Golden Text of the Sunday Lesson-Sermon in all branches of The Mother Church, The First Church of Christ, Scientist, in Boston, will be this verse from Isaiah: "The Lord God will help me; therefore shall I not be confounded; therefore have I set my face like a flint, and I know that I shall not be ashamed." "Ancient and Modern Necromancy, alias Mesmerism and Hypnotism, Denounced" is the subject.

According to Matthew's Gospel Jesus said to his disciples, "Whom do men say that I the Son of man am? And they said, Some say that thou art John the Baptist; some, Elias; . . . He saith unto them, But whom say ye that I am? And Simon Peter answered and said, Thou art the Christ, the Son of the living God. And Jesus . . . said unto him, Blessed art thou, Simon Barjona: for flesh and blood hath not revealed it unto thee, but my Father which is in heaven. And I say also unto thee, That thou art Peter, and upon this rock I will build my church; and the gates of hell shall not prevail against it."

In "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" Mary Baker Eddy writes, "Jesus did his own work by the one Spirit. He said: 'My Father worketh hitherto, and I work.'" "God controls man, and God is the only Spirit. Any other control or attraction of so-called spirit is a mortal belief, which ought to be known by its fruit,—the repetition of evil."
